MESSAGE FROM HON. CHAIRMAN

Focusing on positive thinking

You can learn to turn negative thinking into positive thinking. The process is simple, but it does take time and practice — you're creating a new habit, after all.

Following are some ways to think and behave in a more positive and optimistic way:

- Identify areas to change. If you want to become more optimistic and engage in more positive thinking, first identify areas of your life that you usually think negatively about, whether it's work, your daily commute, life changes or a relationship. You can start small by focusing on one area to approach in a more positive way. Think of a positive thought to manage your stress instead of a negative one.
- Check yourself. Periodically during the day, stop and evaluate what you're thinking. If you find that your thoughts are mainly negative, try to find a way to put a positive spin on them.
- Be open to humor. Give yourself permission to smile or laugh, especially during difficult times. Seek humor in everyday happenings. When you can laugh at life, you feel less stressed.
- Follow a healthy lifestyle. Aim to exercise for about 30 minutes on most days of the week. You can also break it up into 5- or 10-minute chunks of time during the day. Exercise can positively affect mood and reduce stress. Follow a healthy diet to fuel your mind and body. Get enough sleep. And learn techniques to manage stress.
- Surround yourself with positive people. Make sure those in your life are positive, supportive people you can depend on to give helpful advice and feedback. Negative people may increase your stress level and make you doubt your ability to manage stress in healthy ways.
- Practice positive self-talk. Start by following one simple rule: Don't say anything to yourself that you wouldn't say to anyone else. Be gentle and encouraging with yourself. If a negative thought enters your mind, evaluate it rationally and respond with affirmations of what is good about you. Think about things you're thankful for in your life.

Message from PRINCIPAL DESK

I AM GLAD TO PRESENT THE TWELFTH EDITION
OF OUR SCHOOL MAGAZINE FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-25 FOR THE MONTH OF MAY.

Dear Parents,

“The mind is not a vessel to be filled, but a fire to be kindled.”

In every child, there is a world waiting to be explored. We are committed in our mission to inculcate a state of happiness in every child to ensure a peace-loving and harmonious world.

Since its inception, D.B. Jadhav School has endeavoured to transcend learning beyond boundaries. We are devoted to set benchmarks in nurturing children to grow into strong, matured, kind and intelligent adults, who are original in their ideas and decisive in their actions.

Keeping in mind that to teach is to touch a life forever, we believe in holistic education that encompasses academics, co-curricular activities, sports education and life-skills learning. The campus, sports and academic facilities all bear testimony to this belief. As we venture ahead and spread our wings in this spectacular valley of value-based education our endeavour is to strike a balance between state-of-the-art- infrastructure and a robust curriculum that opens the door to global platforms for our peace loving and problem-solving students. Activities and events related to value education, environment, health education, games and sports, visual and performing arts, culture and heritage, personality development are effectively woven into the main fabric of school curriculum.

Date: 01-05-2025

Maharashtra Day holds great significance as it commemorates the formation of the state of Maharashtra on 1st May 1960. It is a day to honor the culture, heritage, and progress of the state and to remember the contributions of those who worked towards its creation.

The Maharashtra Day celebration was held on 1st May from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. in the school premises. The event was anchored by Mrs. Varsha Madnani, Assistant Teacher, who warmly welcomed the audience and guided the program.

The celebration began with the welcome of the chief guest and other dignitaries, followed by the flag hoisting ceremony conducted by the chief guest Mrs. Urmila Jadhav. The entire assembly joined in the National Anthem, followed by the Dhvaj Geet and the Maharashtra Geet, sung with pride and enthusiasm.

To honor the presence of the chief guest, Mrs. Neema Khati, Vice Principal, felicitated Hon. Chief guest Mrs. Urmila Jadhav.

The program continued with a speech by Mr. Arun Shinde, Head of the Hostel Department, who spoke on the importance of Maharashtra Day and its relevance to the younger generation. This was followed by an insightful and inspiring speech by the chief guest, Mrs. Urmila Jadhav, who highlighted the rich cultural heritage of Maharashtra and urged everyone to contribute to the progress of the state.

The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Mrs. Damyanti Mahase, expressing gratitude to all participants, guests, and organizers. The program ended on a patriotic note with the singing of Vande Mataram.

The Maharashtra Day celebration was a meaningful and proud moment for all, instilling a sense of unity and cultural pride among the attendees.

Author: Shantanu Naidu

Book Title: I Came Upon a Lighthouse

Summary: For those captivated by tales of mentorship, innovation, and personal growth, “I Came Upon a Lighthouse” by Shantanu Naidu offers a profoundly inspiring narrative. The book chronicles a remarkable friendship between an 86-year-old icon of Indian industry, Ratan Tata, and a 25-year-old idealist, Shantanu Naidu. This story isn't just about two individuals from vastly different worlds; it's a testament to the power of empathy, curiosity, and the willingness to learn from one another.

Naidu, an MBA graduate and social entrepreneur, recounts his journey with an engaging simplicity that resonates deeply. His initial encounter with Tata stemmed from a shared passion for animal welfare—a cause that brought the young engineer into the orbit of the celebrated industrialist. What followed was a unique bond that transcended the traditional boundaries of professional relationships.

The narrative is both heartwarming and enlightening, shedding light on Ratan Tata's lesser-known personal side. Beyond his monumental achievements as the chairman of Tata Group, Tata emerges as a kind, witty, and deeply compassionate individual who believes in nurturing young talent. For Naidu, Tata becomes a mentor, guide, and friend, providing not just career guidance but also life lessons imbued with humility and resilience.

Naidu's writing style is refreshing and conversational, making the book accessible even to readers unfamiliar with corporate India. The anecdotes—whether about morning drives, shared meals, or brainstorming sessions—are filled with sincerity, offering glimpses of Tata's humanity and the depth of their relationship. For anyone curious about Tata's ethos and the profound impact he has on those around him, this book is a treasure trove.

Beyond the personal connection, the book also serves as an inspiration for aspiring entrepreneurs. Naidu's journey toward founding his own venture, guided by Tata's insights, underscores the importance of perseverance, innovation, and a clear vision. His story reminds readers that success isn't just about financial achievement; it's about making a difference.

Personal Opinion: On a personal level, this book offers not just inspiration but also a fresh perspective on life. For readers who admire Ratan Tata or are intrigued by stories of unconventional friendships, I Came Upon a Lighthouse is a must-read. It is a celebration of mentorship, intergenerational bonds, and the quiet strength of ethical leadership—a beacon of light in a fast-paced, often impersonal world.
